Background information

John is a Senior Solicitor at Stewart Law Solicitors. He has been a specialist employment lawyer since 2003. John's career in law started in the City in 2001 when he joined the prestigious law firm, Nabarro. He subsequently qualified into its employment team. He worked there for five years before moving to Stewart Law Solicitors in August 2006.

John is very experienced in advising on all aspects of employment law and in acting for both employers and individuals. John has experience in advising a broad cross section of clients, including FTSE 100 companies, UK private and public limited companies, public authorities, charities, North American investment companies and private individuals. He is a member of the Employment Lawyers Association.

John is fluent in German. He studied law (LLB) at Warwick University, which included spending the third year of his degree in Germany studying German law. He completed the Legal Practice Course at Nottingham Law School and has spent time working in the employment department of a leading German law firm in Berlin. John also speaks French and Spanish.

John has recently advised and assisted on:

- Employment Tribunal proceedings involving multiple and complex claims for unlawful discrimination (age, disability and part-time worker), suffering detriments as a whistle-blower and constructive unfair dismissal.
- Large scale redundancy and restructuring exercise for a leading property investment and development company.
- A major review of a public sector client's Staff Handbook, including reviewing, amending and updating existing policies, drafting new ones and providing guidance on rolling out the new Handbook to staff.
